Potter

Dear Ed,

Thanks very much for your kind comments of the 29th.

Your p.s., relating to the attached pages from PW on the Eddowes book, asks or says "Could be Clarkson N. Potter is CIA."

I've had the idea before from his earlier works.

All on one side, all angled, all serving CIA interests and none with commercial prospects.

There was Milton Brener's book on Garrison.

Didn't he bring Newman's out?

There will not likely be any ancillary use of Eddowes because the Enquirer already went for that when he brought his own English edition out.

As I recall it what he then had was pretty crazy.

Think there was another book he published, always through Crown.

Best,
